

PSA: FNSB Libraries, June 9, 2021.

Fairbanks North Star Borough Public Libraries have been honored to provide safe library services, programming and computer access to our community throughout the pandemic. We are proud that we have an unbroken record of maintaining Fairbanks' access to library materials consistently and without interruption.

We are now happy to announce a further expansion of our services. We have increased hours of service and look forward to your next in-person visit. No appointment is necessary. Social distancing, hand sanitizer use and masking are encouraged. Please call 459-1020 with questions.

- Noel Wien Library: 10am-6pm Mon-Fri
 - Beginning June 19: 10-5 on Sat
 - Evening hours to be added in August
- North Pole Branch: 11 am – 6pm Tues-Fri, Saturday 11-5

As we transition from virtual services

please note:

- Summer Reading Programs (Children and Teen) are in full swing – please call or visit our website @www.fnsblibrary.org for more information.
- Holds are now mainly self-pickup at the Circulation Desk.
- Holds can still be placed by:
 - The online catalog @ www.fnsblibrary.org
 - Calling Reference at 459-1020 for Noel Wien Library or 488-6101 for North Pole Branch
 - Using our online 'Fetch' or 'Grab and Go' services @ www.fnsblibrary.org
- Limited curbside services are available for immuno-compromised patrons, please call 459-1020 at Noel Wien Library, or 488-6101 at North Pole Branch, for more information.
- Berry Room is open during normal operating hours. Toys, games and computers are not available.
- Bookmobile services will resume normal operations. Please call 459-1031 for more information.
- Stop by the libraries to get your free library card.